

January 24, 2012– PRESS RELEASE

Delkor Expands with Four New Sales Managers

MINNEAPOLIS, MN- Henk Hoogendoorn, Kevin Weiss, Carlos Cruz and Luke Gardner have been appointed Sales Managers for Delkor Systems, Inc.

Henk's territory will consist of the Southeastern USA. His background includes extensive experience in sales, marketing, and new business development with packaging and plastic machinery manufacturers. Most recently he was National Sales Manager for Bosch Packaging Technology, Inc., producers of primary and secondary packaging equipment.

Carlos' territory will include Latin America as well as the states of Texas and New Mexico. His background includes extensive experience in sales, engineering, and management of capital goods. Most recently he was the Sales Manager for Latin America for Bosch Packaging Technology.

Luke's territory will consist of Michigan, Indiana, and Ohio. Luke has been with Delkor for 6 years, holding positions in inside sales, machine assembly, and service. Luke most recently worked as Delkor's Sales Administrator.

Kevin will manage the Northeastern USA, and Maritime Provinces of Canada. His background includes extensive experience in sales, engineering, and product management of capital goods. Most recently he was Vice President of Industrial Products and Director of Engineering for Day Carter International, Inc., a processing machinery builder.

For more information, please contact Delkor's Marketing Manager Paul Kritzeck, pkritzeck@delkorsystems.com or call (763)746-1833. Visit Delkor's website at: www.delkorsystems.com.

From left to right: Henk Hoogendoorn, Carlos Cruz, Luke Gardner, Kevin Weiss