Paul Buck Joins Delkor Systems as Account Manager

St. Paul, MN, July 2008 . . . Paul Buck has joined Delkor Systems, Inc. as Account Manager. He will be responsible for handling all national accounts for the company out of his home office in Louisville, Kentucky. Buck comes to Delkor with 34 years of sales experience with secondary packaging equipment.

Delkor Systems, Inc. is a leading North American manufacturer of end-of-line packaging systems, with innovative solutions to automatically form, load, inspect, wrap and seal end-of-line packaging trays, cartons and cases. Delkor designs practical solutions that enable customers to become lower-cost producers through the application of automation, robotics and other packaging line efficiencies. For more than 30 years, Delkor has provided high-quality, patented, innovative end-of-line packaging machines that deliver these benefits.
